Comments on activities that could not be included:

"I advise and write letters of recommendation for 10-15 fellows and junior faculty per year who are applying for various graduate and post-graduate training courses and new positions". I don't have a title associated with this role and not all of these people are mentees listed in the mentee section, although some are, and not all are accepted into the programs for which they are applying, although luckily some are....

It is not there are not places to put mentoring activities, it is that they are lost among other CV items because there is no specific section for mentoring.
